Recommended Wine Routes

- North West Wine Route
- Tamar Valley Wine Route (includes Tamar Valley & Pipers River)
- East Coast Wine Route
- Southern Wine Route (includes Coal River Valley, Derwent Valley and Huon/Channel)

Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian Mixed Dozen freight scheme. This allows you to purchase a bottle or two from different vineyards as you travel around and have wine dispatched to your home address once you’ve reached a dozen bottles. Present your purchased wines (in dozen lots) at the last vineyard on your travels – they’ll let you know the cost of freight and it will be sent straight to you.
Did you know that Tasmania has 160 licensed wine producers? Of these wine producers, the vast majority – more than 100 – only sell their wines within Tasmania. If you like your wines cool climate, elegant, intense and structured, start planning your visit!

The Tasmanian cellar door experience is as diverse as the range of wine styles, from converted heritage stables to ultra-modern cellar door restaurants. Producers are usually on hand and happy to share their passion for their wines, distinctly shaped by Tasmania’s climate and soils.

Not only will you have the chance to ‘wine’ your way around the island, you will be amazed at the fresh local food on offer from individual producers and at farmers markets, the natural scenery, the arts, culture, heritage and, most of all, the interesting, passionate characters that call Tasmania home.

Tasmania’s boutique yet burgeoning wine sector boasts seven distinct wine growing areas, which are divided into four wine experiences to assist visitors to the island state – the north, the south, the east coast and the north west.

All are within easy reach of major centres or are located en route to some of Tasmania’s iconic attractions.

Take your time to explore the varied wines of the Tamar Valley in northern Tasmania or take an easy drive from Hobart to the Derwent, Coal River and Huon Valleys. There are also award-winning vineyards waiting en route to Cradle Mountain in the north-west or en route to Freycinet and Wineglass Bay on the sunny east coast.

Tasmania’s naturally elegant wines are made from grapes grown in climates similar to much-celebrated European wine regions – with mild summers and long autumn days that slowly ripen the grapes, providing elegance and intensity of flavour. Tasmania is renowned for its Pinot Noir, sparkling wines, Riesling, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Gris, and more.

Tasmania enjoys a national and international reputation as a leading producer of some of Australia’s premium wines, winning high praise and plenty of trophies from wine judges and critics alike.

So enjoy our regional wines, friendly encounters with growers and winemakers and celebrate the delights that come with the changing of our seasons with a visit to one or more of Tasmania’s wine areas.

Wine Tasmania encourages responsible consumption of alcohol and recommends the following: don’t drink on an empty stomach, drink plenty of water, use spittoons and if you plan to drive – choose a designated driver or take a guided wine route tour.
All vineyards participating in the Tasmanian Mixed Dozen freight scheme will have this icon beside their listing – see further details on page 2.
Uncover a quiet corner of this extraordinary island, where there’s no such thing as rush hour and space isn’t divided into cubicles. Instead, Tasmania’s huge skies and unique landscapes – such as the unforgettable Nut at Stanley or the breathtaking Cradle Mountain – fill the heart with inspiration and your camera with memories. See your world in a whole new light.

It is an extraordinarily diverse region: where you can see a wild Tasmanian devil feeding, chat to a winemaker who’s waiting to share a glass of their favourite Pinot Noir, or meet local artists and hear how the North West inspires their artwork.

Stroll beautiful white beaches, explore scenic fishing villages, take in mountain views or discover delightful local history in cities and towns.

This is Tasmania’s food bowl, offering the finest ingredients that any gourmet adventurer could desire. Mouth-watering seafood, an abundance of vegetables, cherries, berries, stone fruits and organic herbs. Wines from this beautiful part of the island include stunning sparkling wines, outstanding aromatic white wines and sensational Pinot Noir.

Wherever you go on your North West Coast adventure, you’ll discover places, people and experiences that engage, enrich and enliven you.

Tamar Valley Wine Route

The Tamar Valley Wine Route, in the heart of northern Tasmania, is a holiday and recreation destination in its own right.

It is Tasmania’s largest wine producing area. Vineyards snuggle side by side with picturesque orchards, forests and fertile pastures that line the banks of the Tamar River. The Tamar has created a glorious fertile valley of high-yielding vineyards, famous for Chardonnay, sparkling wines, aromatic whites and Pinot Noir.

From the Valley, to Pipers River in the north, through to Launceston and Relbia in the south, there are more than 30 vineyards within driving distance of each other. Cellar door tastings are a specialty of the Tamar Valley - expect to be pampered, surprised and delighted by your visit to the Valley.

Fall in love with the Tamar Valley’s easy charm – it is a voyage of modern indulgence and discovery of glorious history. Tasmania is a land that should be savoured slowly... with a glass of fine wine in hand and friendly locals to guide you on your way.

Things to see and do:

› Take to the water and cruise the hidden reaches of the Tamar River and Cataract Gorge.

› Experience Tasmania’s rich mining history at the Beaconsfield Mine and Heritage Centre.

Southern Wine Route

With the River Derwent at its heart and Mount Wellington rising above it, Hobart offers the tranquility of a city from a bygone era coexisting with the vibrancy of a pocket-sized modern metropolis. Waterfront 19th-century sandstone warehouses now serve as dockside cafes, artist studios and restaurants, where you can enjoy excellent cuisine and fine wines.

Hobart is a place of fishing boats, fish punts at the docks, an accessible harbour, coffee under the sun-umbrellas where the famous Salamanca Market is held every Saturday or restaurants serving the best food in Australia.

Similarly, the wine areas surrounding Hobart are rich with a variety of landscapes and experiences and are well worth the visit. To the east is the Coal River Valley and Richmond historic village, to the south is the rich and fertile Huon Valley and to the north-west, following the banks of the Derwent River, are the cellar doors of the Derwent Valley. From architecturally designed, ultra-modern restaurants to quaint heritage-listed cottages, these local cellar doors are well worth the visit.

When Lonely Planet awarded Hobart one of ten spots in the world in its Best in Travel 2013, it did so, not only because of the big things, but the small and local, the ‘tucked away’ treats that you can find in every direction.

Things to see and do:

➤ MONA is the Museum of Old and New Art, displayed in a secular temple at Moorilla Estate: 6,000 square metres of artwork that will batter your beliefs.

➤ Each Saturday hosts Australia’s best outdoor market on Salamanca Place – bargains and buskers, art and craft, food and wine, trash and treasure.

➤ Visit the pinnacle of spectacular Mt Wellington and see the entire city and its harbour below.

➤ Cruise the pristine southern waterways and sample regional cuisine at Peppermint Bay at Woodbridge.

➤ Take a day trip to the Derwent Valley, where you can marvel at the pristine river reflections, the ever changing colours of the hop trees or feed a fish or two at the Salmon Ponds.

➤ Immerse yourself in the power of Port Arthur, its convict buildings, gardens, tours and captivating tales – an essential Tasmanian experience.

Coal River Valley Wine Region

Come and treat yourself to the superb wines and food in the Coal River Valley Wine Region. Only a 20 minute scenic drive from the city, the region has the largest concentration of vineyards in southern Tasmania.

Step back in time with a visit to Richmond, an historic village nestled in the rolling hills of the valley. In Richmond, Tasmania’s convict past seems very close. Quaint Georgian cottages line the streets, and mellow sandstone glows in the sun. An amazing number of beautiful old stone buildings constructed by convict labour have stood the test of time.

Exploring Richmond and the Coal River Valley is a delight. Savour the locally produced fine wines, visit the art galleries and antique shops, and be tempted by the bakery and lolly shops. Try the succulent fresh local oysters from the Pittwater estuary.

There’s lots of colonial accommodation in the Richmond area, along with an historic country pub, restaurants, and cafes. Why not combine your visit with a local festival, a game of golf at the championship standard golf courses, or an international cricket match or AFL game at Blundstone Arena?

The weather is sunny and the skies crystal clear. The sunsets are golden. With its long white beaches away from the crowds and seas of intense aqua, Tasmania’s east coast offers a completely different Australian beach experience. The mild climate and pristine secluded beaches means the coastline is perfect for walking, kayaking, diving, sea cruises and other adventure activities.

But it is also a place to wind down and relax. Follow the east coast wine route as winds its way north from Orford, a seaside town where the locals love to holiday, past the spectacular sandy beaches of Swansea towards Wineglass Bay, one of Australia’s most recognisable views, northwards to St Helens and Binalong Bay which extends the theme for countless kilometres. The full-flavoured vintages harvested from cool-climate vineyards in this region have won international praise and are an outstanding match for the region’s succulent fresh seafood.

Take the time to stop and chat to the locals – whether they are fishermen, winemakers or walking-guides, you will hear a different life story from these people, whose values are shaped by the rhythms of nature, and the stunning beauty of the east coast.

East Coast Wine Route

- Take a drive and short walk to Cape Tourville lighthouse, on the edge of the Freycinet National Park, for spectacular panoramic coastal views.
- Venture into the Freycinet National Park by sea kayak, cruise boat or on foot to make the unique journey to Wineglass Bay, one of the world’s finest beaches.

Established in late 2006, Wine Tasmania is the peak body representing the grape growers and wine producers of the island state. Our role is to work with our members and key stakeholders, including government, to promote Tasmania as a producer of naturally elegant, premium cool climate wines that shine with food.
