Welcome
to the 2016 edition of Tasmania’s wine trails
Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian Mixed Dozen freight scheme. This allows you to purchase a bottle or two from different vineyards as you travel around and have wine dispatched to your home address once you’ve reached a dozen bottles. Present your purchased wines (in dozen lots) at the last participating vineyard on your travels from which you purchase wine - they’ll let you know the cost of freight and it will be sent straight to you.
INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2016 edition of Tasmania’s wine trails, your ultimate guide to navigating the island’s beautiful wine growing areas. In addition to providing details of cellar doors and vineyards, you’ll also find complementary food and tourism experiences.

Introducing the Tasmanian Seafood Trail

Living close to the sea, Tasmanians understand fresh seafood. Partner the island’s superb seafood with its outstanding local wines for a match made in heaven!

In 2016, Wine Tasmania and the Tasmanian Seafood Industry Council have partnered to share with you the Tasmanian Seafood Trail, allowing you to find some of the island’s outstanding seafood at restaurants, pubs, bars, through tours and retail outlets. You’ll find the Seafood Trail shown within the relevant touring areas throughout this publication. You can also visit www.winetasmania.com.au/wine_trails and select “Tasmanian Seafood Trail” for an interactive map. Find out more about the Tasmanian Seafood Industry Council at www.tsic.org.au.

On our gourmet island, you will savour the sweet saltiness of plump oysters, the delicate flavour of delicious scallops and abalone and delicacies like octopus and Tasmanian-caught southern rock lobster (or ‘crayfish’ in Tasmania). If it is scalefish you’re after, blue eye trevalla, blue grenadier, flathead, pink ling and Tasmanian Atlantic salmon or ocean trout are iconic Tasmanian species that are readily available in most retail outlets and restaurants. Shellfish on offer includes Pacific oysters and blue mussels, while divers harvest periwinkles, pipis, clams and urchins.

If you like your wines cool climate, elegant, intense and structured, visiting the island is the best way to taste some of Australia’s best!

Did you know that the vast majority of Tasmania’s 160 licensed wine producers only sell their wines within Tasmania? If you like your wines cool climate, elegant, intense and structured, visiting the island is the best way to taste some of Australia’s best!

The Tasmanian cellar door experience is as diverse as the range of wine styles, from converted heritage stables to ultra-modern cellar door restaurants.
Not only will you have the chance to ‘wine’ your way around the island, you will be amazed at the fresh local food on offer from individual producers and at farmers markets, the natural scenery, the arts, culture, heritage and, most of all, the interesting, passionate characters that call Tasmania home.

Tasmania’s boutique yet burgeoning wine sector boasts seven distinct wine growing areas, which are divided into four wine experiences to assist visitors to the island state - the north, the south, the east coast and the north west coast. All are within easy reach of major centres or are located en route to some of Tasmania’s iconic attractions.

Take your time to explore the varied wines of the Tamar Valley and Pipers River in northern Tasmania or take an easy drive from Hobart to the Derwent, Coal River and Huon Valleys. There are also award-winning vineyards waiting on the stunning route from Cradle Mountain to the north west coast or en route to Freycinet and Wineglass Bay on the sunny east coast.

Varietal Wine Trails - create your own

If you have a favourite wine or two, you can create your own itinerary focusing on your favourite wine. For example, you can select Tasmanian producers of sparkling wine and create your own Sparkling Wine Trail or Pinot Noir, or any of the island’s outstanding wine varieties. All you have to do is visit www.winetasmania.com.au/wine_trails and select your favourite variety / varieties from the drop down menu.

Tasmania’s naturally elegant wines are made from grapes grown in climates similar to much-celebrated European wine regions - with mild summers and long autumn days that slowly ripen the grapes, providing elegance and intensity of flavour. Tasmania is renowned for its Pinot Noir, sparkling wines, Riesling, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Gris, and more.

Tasmania enjoys a national and international reputation as a leading producer of some of Australia’s premium wines, winning high praise and plenty of trophies from wine judges and critics alike.

So enjoy our regional wines, friendly encounters with growers and winemakers and celebrate the delights that come with the changing of our seasons with a visit to one or more of Tasmania’s wine areas.

You will find oodles of information to help you plan your visit to our little island of gourmet paradise at www.discovertasmania.com. You may also like to explore complementary food and beverage trails during your visit, such as the Tasmanian Cider Trail (www.tascidertrail.com) and Whisky Trail (www.taswhiskytrail.com).

Wine Tasmania encourages responsible consumption of alcohol and recommends the following: don’t drink on an empty stomach, drink plenty of water, use spittoons and if you plan to drive – choose a designated driver or take a guided wine trail tour.

NORTH WEST WINE TRAIL

Experience the Unexpected

Don’t be fooled by its size! Although the North West is the island’s smallest wine growing area, it more than makes up for it with its outstanding wines!

The North West is the gateway to some of Tasmania’s most beautiful natural places. Exploring the North West you’ll find the unexpected - classic coastal drives, food and wine, stunning national parks and beautiful nature reserves.

Tasmania’s North West is a great place for touring and offers spectacular views at every turn, from Mt Roland near Devonport, Table Cape near Wynyard and the famous ‘Nut’ at Stanley. And some of Tasmania’s prettiest cities and towns sit right on the water’s edge on the scenic North West coast, each with their own unique attractions and relaxed seaside atmosphere.

There’s an ongoing tradition of agriculture here that’s evident in the rich red soils and patchwork fields found throughout the countryside.

There’s a wealth of stories here too, with some great museums and significant Aboriginal heritage sites, while the region’s creative spirit is showcased in the many art galleries, public artworks, artisan shops and markets found along the North West coast.

Tasmania’s North West is also home to Cradle Mountain, one of Tasmania’s most visited icons, offering amazing nature experiences, including forest adventures, great walks - easy and hard - and some of the best scenery in the world.

Whichever way you explore the region, there’s no shortage of great places to stay, eat and enjoy in Tasmania’s North West.

The North West is the gateway to some of Tasmania’s most beautiful natural places.

Twenty two years after establishment, we thought it was time to open a cellar door. But where?

“I know! - the old shearing shed”.

“Mmm... bit rough mate, weatherboards missing, the roof leaks, and it’s got a fair lean to it”.

“Nah, she’ll be right. I’ll fix it up, get rid of all the junk and give it a sweep”.

“Those fancy wine ponces won't think much of it mate”.

“Once they taste our wine, they wouldn’t care if they were in a cow shed!”

“Mmm... The old milking shed.. there’s another idea”

TAMAR VALLEY WINE ROUTE
An Authentic Journey

Launceston, in Tasmania’s North, is Tasmania’s second largest city and a vibrant hub for food and wine, culture and nature. It’s also the gateway to the Tamar Valley and Pipers River wine growing areas.

Out of Launceston, the surrounding green fields and country lanes are lined with 150 year old hawthorn, poplar and elm trees, while in the rich farmland of the Tamar Valley can be found lavender plantations, vineyards, strawberry farms and orchards.

The Tamar Valley is Tasmania’s oldest wine-growing area and a place where premium cool-climate wines, outstanding fresh produce and award winning restaurants go hand in hand. The cellar doors, vineyard restaurants and farmers’ markets of Launceston and the north offer some of the best gourmet experiences in Australia.

From the Valley, to Pipers River in the north, through to Launceston and Relbia in the south, there are more than 32 vineyards within driving distance of each other. Cellar door tastings are a specialty of the Tamar Valley - expect to be pampered, surprised and delighted by your visit to the Valley.

Fall in love with the Tamar Valley’s easy charm - it is a voyage of modern indulgence and discovery of glorious history. Tasmania is a land that should be savoured slowly...with a glass of fine wine in hand and friendly locals to guide you on your way.

Visit the Design Tasmania Centre - a world renowned museum collection of wood design, overlooking Launceston’s City Park.

Take to the water and cruise the hidden reaches of the Tamar River and Cataract Gorge.

Experience Tasmania’s rich mining history at the Beaconsfield Mine and Heritage Centre.

Sample divine food and wine at Launceston’s many world class restaurants, providores and cafes.

Taste the region’s freshest produce and wines every Saturday at Launceston’s community farmers’ market – The Harvest Market in Cimitiere Street.

Visit the refurbished Penny Royal in the heart of Launceston - adventure rides, cliff walk, shops and cafes (opening December 2015).

SOUTHERN WINE TRAIL

Discover Hobart & Beyond

Hobart, Tasmania’s capital city, is located on the Derwent River in Tasmania’s south. Vineyards are closer to Hobart than any other capital city, including in the Derwent Valley, Coal River Valley and the Huon / Channel wine growing areas.

South of Hobart are the clear waters and stunning coastline of Bruny Island, the fertile soils of the Huon Valley where vineyards and orchards nestle side-by-side and the picturesque beauty of the D’Entrecasteaux Channel.

East of Hobart are the wineries and vineyards of the Coal River Valley and the Tasman National Park with its spectacular coastline and historic convict sites.

To the north west is the Derwent Valley, where the road follows the beautiful Derwent River through rows of poplars and on to Tasmania’s central highlands and the grandeur of Lake St Clair and the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area.

North from Hobart, the Midland Highway heads to Launceston. Dubbed the Heritage Highway, it offers many opportunities to enjoy Tasmania’s heritage past, with homesteads and country cottages reflecting the state’s early colonial history.

This stunning region offers arts and culture, food and drink, wilderness, heritage, wildlife and waterways are ever present, yet it is the experiences from one moment to the next that will ensure you never forget Tasmania’s south.

Things to see and do:

MONA is the Museum of Old and New Art, displayed in a secular temple at Moorilla Estate: 6,000 square metres of artwork that will batter your beliefs.

Each Saturday hosts Australia’s best outdoor market on Salamanca Place – bargains and buskers, art and craft, food and wine, trash and treasure.

Visit the pinnacle of spectacular Mt Wellington and see the entire city and its harbour below.

Enjoy some of the freshest local produce matched with award winning wines on Hobart’s waterfront, including at 2015 Tasmanian Wine List of the Year winning venues - Henry’s Restaurant at the Henry Jones Art Hotel (Judges’ Choice) or the Ball & Chain Grill (People’s Choice).

Immerse yourself in the power of Port Arthur, its convict buildings, gardens, tours and captivating tales – an essential Tasmanian experience.

Coal River Valley Wine Region

Come and treat yourself to the superb wines and food in the Coal River Valley Wine Region. Only a 20 minute scenic drive from the city, the region has the largest concentration of vineyards in southern Tasmania.

Step back in time with a visit to Richmond, an historic village nestled in the rolling hills of the valley. In Richmond, Tasmania’s convict past seems very close. Quaint Georgian cottages line the streets, and mellow sandstone glows in the sun. An amazing number of beautiful old stone buildings constructed by convict labour have stood the test of time.

Exploring Richmond and the Coal River Valley is a delight. Savour the locally produced fine wines and cheeses, visit the art galleries and antique shops, and be tempted by the bakery and lolly shops. Try the succulent fresh local oysters from the Pittwater estuary.

There’s lots of colonial accommodation in the Richmond area, along with an historic country pub, restaurants, and cafes. Why not combine your visit with a local festival, a game of golf at the championship standard golf courses, or an international cricket match or AFL game at Blundstone Arena?

Open: 11am – 6pm daily (fees apply)

The avant-garde wines of Domaine Simha are shaped ‘au naturel’ to reflect epic Tasmanian terroir. Vigneron, Nav Singh honed his skills in the world’s most prestigious chateaux. An artisan approach embraces harvesting on fruit and flower days by lunar cycle, wild fermentation and maturation in custom demi-muid oak and Amphorae. These spectacular single vineyard wines reflect some of the most pure terroir and ancient soil on earth.

Sales, tastings and small plates overlooking the waterfront.
