Welcome to the 2012 edition of Tasmania's Wine Routes

Tasmania's naturally elegant wines are made from grapes grown in climates similar to much-celebrated European wine regions – with mild summers and long autumn days that slowly ripen the grapes, providing elegance and intensity of flavour.

Tasmania's boutique yet burgeoning wine industry boasts seven distinct wine growing areas, which have been divided into four wine experiences to assist visitors to the island state – the north (known as the Tamar Valley Wine Route), the south, the east coast and the north west coast. All are within easy reach of major centres or are located en route to some of Tasmania's iconic attractions.

(includes Tamar Valley & North East)
-  East Coast Wine Route
-  Southern Wine Route
(includes Coal River Valley, Derwent Valley and Huon/Channel)

Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian Mixed Dozen freight scheme. This allows you to purchase a bottle or two from different vineyards as you travel around and have wine dispatched to your home address once you've reached a dozen bottles. Present your purchased wines (in dozen lots) at the last vineyard on your travels - they'll let you know the cost of freight and it will be sent straight to you.

The cellar door experience is as diverse as the range of wine styles, from converted heritage stables to ultra-modern cellar door restaurants.

Producers are usually on hand and happy to share their passion for their wines, distinctly shaped by Tasmania's climate and soils.

Take your time to explore the varied wines of the Tamar Valley in northern Tasmania or take an easy drive from Hobart to the Derwent, Coal River and Huon valleys. There are also award-winning vineyards waiting en route to Cradle Mountain in the north-west or en route to Freycinet and Wineglass Bay on the sunny east coast.

This unique island state now produces elegant cool climate wines such as Pinot Noir, sparkling wines, Riesling, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Gris.

Tasmania enjoys an international reputation as a leading producer of some of Australia's premium wines, winning high praise and plenty of trophies from wine judges and critics alike.

So relax and rejuvenate your senses with a visit to one or more of Tasmania's wine areas...

Maps, producer listings and a guide to Tasmanian wine and food events are also available at www.winetasmania.com.au

Wine Tasmania encourages responsible consumption of alcohol and recommends the following: don't drink on an empty stomach, drink plenty of water, use spittoons and if you plan to drive – choose a designated driver or take a guided wine route tour.

Tamar Valley Wine Route

The seductive Tamar River meanders for 58 kilometres through the fertile Tamar Valley with vineyards, orchards, pastures and forests, from the boutique-chic regional city of Launceston, and then north to the turquoise sea and diamond sands of Bass Strait.

The Tamar Valley area – the oldest wine region in Tasmania – is beautifully crowded with more than 30 cellar doors located along the wine route, stretching from Launceston to Rowella, east to Pipers River and south to Relbia.

It's a voyage of discovery from the rustic to the sophisticated, each vineyard with its own unique story – often to be told by the winemakers themselves, whose cool climate wines attract worldwide attention, not because they seek it, but because they've earned it.

Some of the best sparkling wine, Riesling, Pinot Noir and Sauvignon Blanc in Australia come from this area of stunning natural beauty.

While touring this wine growing area, make sure you sample some of the region's fresh and seasonal produce at nationally recognised local cafes and restaurants.

Things to see and do:

- › Visit The Design Centre, a world-renowned museum collection of wood design, housed in purpose built galleries overlooking Launceston's City Park.
- › Experience Beaconfield's mining history at the Beaconfield Mine and Heritage Centre.
- › Soothe the senses at Bridestowe Lavender Estate at Nabowla.
- › Explore the magnificent Cataract Gorge, just minutes away from the bustling city centre.
- › Visit the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery, Australia's largest regional museum and art gallery renowned for its collection of colonial art and contemporary craft and design.
- › Sample divine food and wine at one of the region's many annual events including Festvale and Taste of the Tamar. For a full event calendar visit www.visitlauncestontamar.com.au.

Tasmania

Just a short scenic drive from Launceston you will find one of Tasmania's family-owned, hidden treasures with a hands on philosophy.

It is managed by two passionate, committed and down to earth people – winemaker Rebecca Duffy and her husband viticulturist Tim Duffy.

With our 100% hands on approach we carry out nearly all the processes in the winery and vineyard. The result is an extensive range of distinctive, single vineyard, hand crafted wines including Sparkling Rose, Riesling (dry and sweet), Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Gris, Pinot Noir and Cabernet. We also make a Moscato and Muscat using fruit from a family vineyard in Victoria and cider made from locally sourced apples.

Drop in for a tasting and chances are you'll be joined by the owner/ winemaker or one of the family.

Southern Wine Route

Hobart is a city of sails, sandstone and sunshine – a place that combines a rich colonial past with contemporary art and culture; a place that has all the attractions of a state capital, wrapped up in a friendly, accessible, people-sized city. Hobart is a blend of charm and elegance; of heritage and sophistication; of spirit and style.

The southern wine areas surrounding Hobart are rich with a variety of landscapes and experiences. Ranging from architecturally designed, ultra modern restaurants to quaint heritage-listed cottages, these local cellar doors are well worth the visit.

From the Tasman Bridge, you're just a few minutes from the start of the Coal River Valley and Richmond historic village.

Heading south to the rich fruit growing region of the Huon Valley and bountiful Channel region you can sample the vintages at Australia's southernmost vineyards.

Or wind your way north-west to the highlands, following the River Derwent to its source, calling into the Derwent Valley's cellar doors on your way to catching a trout.

No matter the direction, Hobart is the perfect base to venture out to experience all the attractions in the southern wine area.

Things to see and do:

- › MONA is the Museum of Old and New Art, displayed in a secular temple at Moorilla Estate: 6,000 square metres of artwork that will batter your beliefs.
- › Cruise the pristine southern waterways and sample regional cuisine at Peppermint Bay at Woodbridge.
- › Each Saturday hosts Australia's best outdoor market on Salamanca Place – bargains and buskers, art and craft, food and wine, trash and treasure.
- › Visit the pinnacle of spectacular Mt Wellington and see the entire city and its harbour below.
- › Experience Hobart's many food and wine precincts including the scenic waterfront, historic Battery Point, Salamanca Place and North Hobart.
- › Immerse yourself in the power of Port Arthur, its convict buildings, gardens, tours and captivating tales – an essential Tasmanian experience.

Coal River Valley Wine Region

Come and treat yourself to the superb wines and food in the Coal River Valley Wine Region. Only a 20 minute scenic drive from the city, the region has the largest concentration of vineyards in southern Tasmania.

Step back in time with a visit to Richmond, an historic village nestled in the rolling hills of the valley. In Richmond, Tasmania's convict past seems very close. Quaint Georgian cottages line the streets, and mellow sandstone glows in the sun. An amazing number of beautiful old stone buildings constructed by convict labour have stood the test of time.

Exploring Richmond and the Coal River Valley is a delight. Savour the locally produced fine wines, visit the art galleries and antique shops, and be tempted by the bakery and lolly shops. Try the succulent fresh local oysters from the Pittwater estuary.

There's lots of colonial accommodation in the Richmond area, along with an historic country pub, restaurants, and cafes. Why not combine your visit with a local festival, a game of golf at the championship standard golf courses, or an international cricket match at Bellerive Oval?

The City of Clarence has a diverse festival and events program including:

- › Test and One Day International Cricket
 - › Vodafone Test Series – Australia v New Zealand
9 – 13 December 2011
 - › Commonwealth Bank One Day Series – Australia v Sri Lanka
24 February 2012
 - › Commonwealth Bank One Day Series – India v Sri Lanka
28 February 2012
- › Australia Day Breakfast on the Boardwalk
26 January 2012
- › Tasmanian Fruit Wine Festival
29 January 2012
- › Richmond Highland gathering
19 February 2012
- › Clarence Jazz Festival
21 – 26 February 2012
- › Shannons Car and Bike Expo
4 March 2012
- › Richmond Village Colonial Fair
18 March 2012

North West Wine Route

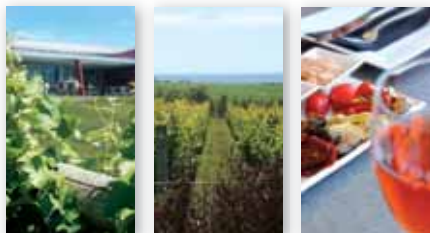

From sea to summit and from sun to snow, Tasmania offers a treasure trove of unforgettable adventures and chances for pampered self-indulgence that is second to none.

The North West wine area is home to the breathtaking Cradle Mountain, spectacular Bass Strait and the rich red soils and lush green pastures that create a landscape of rural charm around lesser-known towns and secret seaside villages. These secrets await the discerning visitor with a taste for the very best of local produce, an appetite for the genuine, and who prefers not just to follow fashion, but to lead it. This is Tasmania's own market garden – a land of milk and honey, and of olive oil, handmade chocolates, hops and beers, wines and whiskies.

In this vivid landscape, often framed by the brilliant blue of the sea, time is measured by the seasons. An oasis in the modern world, here is a land of plenty that still has plenty of time for people. So make time to stop and visit the boutique wineries for tasting and sales – meet the winemakers and growers and satisfy your taste for the very best.

Things to see and do:

- › Walk to spectacular Dove Lake and take in the stunning wilderness views in the Cradle Mountain national park, or just relax with a therapeutic massage or sauna at the Waldheim Alpine Spa at Cradle Mountain Lodge.
- › Savour fine food and wine in a wilderness setting by visiting Cradle Mountain Lodge during its annual Tastings at the Top or one of their winemaker dinners. Details at www.cradlemountainlodge.com.au/food-wine.
- › Taste some of the state's finest cheese at the Cheese Tasting Centre in Burnie or experience local produce in the city's restaurants and delis.
- › Visit the remarkable murals in Sheffield – a town where almost every large wall is an impressive work of art.
- › Stroll the shore in the easygoing seaside villages of Ulverstone, Penguin and Wynyard. Visit the popular Penguin market.

TASMANIA

East Coast Wine Route

On Tasmania's sunny east coast, less than two hours from both Hobart and Launceston, connect with communities with a passion for the place where they live; meet people who love to share the wine and food they make; and experience the distinctive moods and features of Tasmania's changing seasons.

Unwind with coastal adventures – leave your footprints on a deserted white sandy beach, soar with sea eagles and swim in crystal clear waters.

Pack a picnic of local cheeses, berries and wine and wander a coastal trail. Go sea kayaking or ocean cruising in majestic bays, discover hidden coves, get up close to migrating whales, playful seals and dolphins.

Call in and taste the full range of crisp, elegant cool-climate wines on offer at the region's boutique cellar doors.

Superb seafoods and fine cool-climate wines; an unhurried, relaxing seaside life; diverse scenery and experiences; world-class bays, beaches and forests – you'll find them all on Tasmania's wonderful east coast.

Things to see and do:

- › From Orford, take a cruise to Maria Island; observe wombats and wallabies as they graze the World Heritage-listed Darlington settlement. Don't miss the Painted Cliffs and Fossil Cliffs.
- › Visit the beautiful seaside town of Swansea with its cafes, churches and the Bark Mill Museum and Brewery.
- › Visit the Freycinet Marine Farm where Pacific Oysters and Tasmanian Blue Mussels are harvested daily.
- › In Freycinet National Park take an easy beach stroll or a heart-pumping trek to the Hazards for a spectacular view of the perfectly shaped Wineglass Bay.
- › Take a drive to Cape Tourville lighthouse, on the edge of the Freycinet National Park, for spectacular panoramic coastal views.
- › Wander the beach at Bicheno during the day or catch the nightly little penguin parade.

Freycinet Coast. 250 kilometres of pure indulgence

www.freycinetcoast.com.au

explore | indulge | enjoy

Embark on a spectacular 120 kilometre journey, enjoying the flavours of the Freycinet Coast. Travel one of Australia's most magnificent coastal stretches passing through Buckland, Orford, Triabunna, Swansea, Coles Bay and Bicheno. Savour local food at our restaurants, cafes, bistros, pubs and delis.

The Freycinet region produces some of Australia's best cool climate wines. Mild summers and long autumn days allow grapes to ripen slowly, resulting in ruby coloured Cabernet Sauvignon, piquant Pinot Noir, crisp Rieslings, fruity Gewürztraminer, sublime Chardonnay, delicious Pinot Gris and some very special sparkling wines. Heading north from Hobart, stop at Orford's Darlington vineyard for a tasting and views of historic Maria Island. Then it's further north past Kelvedon to cellar door outlets at Cranbrook's Milton, Spring Vale, Craigie Knowe and Gala. On your way to Coles Bay discover Freycinet and Coombend. If cellar doors are closed, Swansea's Onyx (open 7 days) stocks all east coast wines.
