Wine Tasmania acknowledges the Aboriginal people as the traditional owners of lutruwita/Tasmania, our island home. Our vines have their feet in the ancient soils of lutruwita and benefit from the water that generously falls on this island. Our grapes breathe and thrive in the island's crisp fresh air and our vineyards are planted along our precious waterways, which moderate vineyard temperature and help to protect them from frosts. We therefore thank and pay our respects to the Tasmanian Aboriginal communities, elders past and present and recognise their deep and spiritual connection to this amazing place, lutruwita.

X12

Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian mixed dozen freight scheme. This allows you to pick up (awesome) Tassie wine on your travels and then have the purchased bottles sent to your home address. Present your bottles in dozen lots at a participating vineyard from which you purchase wine. They'll let you know the cost of freight and it will be sent straight to your home address.

P.S. don't forget to share your Tassie wine adventures!

CONGRATULATIONS!

*(OK, we may be a little biased, but we are sure that you will thoroughly enjoy the delicious wine from our little island with latitude).

On exploring Australia's coolest wine region*

SO ... WHY ARE TASSIE'S WINES SO AWESOME?

- This island – and its climate – produces some of the best wines on the entire planet
- Our people (Tasmanians) are the best kind of people, particularly the ones that grow and make things
- Sparkling wine (yum)
- Pinot Noir (the “heartbreak” grape)
- Riesling, Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Shiraz (or Syrah, for the refined) and all sorts of other wonderful, delicious grape varieties call Tasmania home

UNBELIEVABLY, WE ALMOST DIDN'T HAVE A WINE SECTOR AT ALL! FOR MANY YEARS THE ISLAND'S WINE PRODUCERS WERE TOLD THAT GROWING GRAPES HERE COULDN'T BE DONE - TASSIE WAS TOO COLD, TOO REMOTE, TOO UNPREDICTABLE. IN THE SPIRIT OF NEVER TAKING NO FOR AN ANSWER, THE ISLAND'S WINE FOLK HAVE BATTLED, PERSEVERED, EXPERIMENTED, INNOVATED AND PERSEVERED SOME MORE.

Check out Wine Tasmania's website for further information on the island's wine scene, contact details for wine producers and more.

Visiting TASSIE

lutruwita / Tasmania (or Tassie, as the locals know it) is one of the most spectacular places in the world. Lush green corners of paradise, picture-perfect beaches, snow capped mountains, breathtaking forests, waterfalls and lakes – you'll find just about every kind of scenery across our landscape. Not to mention cute, cuddly and curious wildlife.

You'll quickly find that Tasmania's vineyards are generally not found on flat land but follow the curve of a valley. Rocky outcrops and windy hilltops challenge the hardest of vine roots and the most committed of grape growers. This makes for diverse and distinctive wines – ancient soils vary wildly from one side of the creek to the other and no two vineyards or vintages are the same. You'll be able to taste the flavours of the season in each glass.

From converted heritage stables to ultra-modern cellar doors, chat and kick the dirt with our wine producers to find out why they have chosen to grow grapes and make wine in these extreme conditions on the edge of the world.

Although Tasmania is classified as one wine region, vineyards stretch right across the island. In this guide the seven distinct growing areas are divided into four wine touring trails. All are within easy reach of major centres and are located along the journey to some of Tasmania's iconic attractions and experiences.

Don't forget ...

Tasmanian wine is also perfectly crafted to complement our island's produce, so find a world class view (there are plenty) and feast like a local. For some more culinary inspiration, see some of our favourite wine and food pairings on page 29.

OTHER THINGS TO See AND do

You will find information in this guide on other things that you might like to see and do as you're travelling around. You'll also find loads of information to help you plan your visit at discovertasmania.com.

You may also like to explore complementary food and beverage trails during your visit. To whet your appetite, take a look at discovertasmania.com.au/things-to-do/food-and-drink/.

IN ANY DIRECTION FROM THE CITY OF HOBART
ROADS LEAD THROUGH MEANDERING RIVER
VALLEYS - WINDING PAST APPLE ORCHARDS,
FARMYARDS, FISHING PORTS AND (OF COURSE)
VINEYARDS.

From the Huon Valley in the south to the Derwent Valley, grapes are grown along riverbanks, seaside inlets and hilltop slopes. To the north-east, the Coal River Valley surrounds the historic township of Richmond. From here, journey on toward the Tasman Peninsula where – just around the next headland – the untamed Southern Ocean becomes ever more wild.

Although Tassie is surrounded by water, nowhere feels more maritime than the south, where Hobart's waterfront docks house ships and icebreakers bound for the icy southern waters. There's a little something for everyone in a place so compact that a few days will feel like a week. With short travel times between adventures, you can be atop kunanyi / Mount Wellington and swimming at a beach on the same day, cruising up the River Derwent and meeting a local artist in Salamanca on the very same afternoon.

Old meets new in the island's lively capital. Find cosy bars along cobbled laneways and modern art in convict-built sandstone warehouses. Wandering the streets of Hobart has a way of striking up a hunger – whether it's the chill in the air or the smell of the many bustling kitchens, it's difficult to be sure. This city is anything but ordinary.

Like elsewhere in Tassie, you'll be able to graze the region's produce from a roadside farm stall through to the tables of a world-class eatery. Growers and makers deliver everything from soft goat's cheese, smoked salmon and roadside stall apples to world class wine of extensive variety.

And beyond the city and vineyards, southern Tasmania is a region of diverse and wild beauty; sea cliffs, big ocean, rare rock formations, tranquil rivers, glacial tarns and alpine mountains at the southern edge of the world.

Some things to SEE & DO:

- MONA is the Museum of Old and New Art, displayed in a secular temple at Moorilla Estate; 6,000 square metres of artwork that will batter your beliefs.
- Each Saturday Salamanca Place hosts Australia's best outdoor market – bargains and buskers, art and craft, food and wine, trash and treasure.
- Follow up on Sunday with the freshest Tassie produce at the Farm Gate Market – ranked among the world's best.
- Visit the pinnacle of spectacular kunanyi / Mt Wellington and see the entire city and its harbour below.
- Immerse yourself in the power of Port Arthur and turrakana / Tasman Peninsula, its convict buildings, gardens, tours and tales – an essential Tasmanian experience.
- Get back to nature – walk the Three Capes Track, take a ferry to Bruny Island or wander villages and inlets of Tasmania's South.

SLOW DOWN. THERE'S A VIEW AROUND EVERY CORNER AND A LONG WHITE SAND BEACH IN BETWEEN. PLACES THAT MAKE YOU FEEL LIKE YOU'RE THE FIRST PERSON TO LEAVE A FOOTPRINT. NATIONAL PARKS FILLED WITH WONDERS, AND SEASIDE TOWNS FILLED WITH WELCOME. A GOURMET FOOD BOWL BURSTING WITH THE BEST LOCAL FARE.

The journey between Hobart and Launceston is an easy and direct drive along the island's main highway. However, we know that the best things are often found on a diversion from the main route. If white sand beaches, rolling blue waves and rugged coastline sound like your scene, then you're going the longer way. And it's always worth the trip.

Tasmania's East Coast is a place of stories, encounters and treasures. Although famous for its coastline, picture-perfect national parks, coastal towns and wildlife, there is also a thriving community of growers to be found here.

Harvesting a variety of fare, the climate provides perfect growing conditions for premium fresh produce from sweet berries and nuts to award-winning cheeses and the freshest seafood imaginable.

The latter deserves a special mention – slurp oysters plucked straight from the sea or devour a fresh crayfish roll for lunch – and the local vino is, of course, the perfect pairing.

Along the East Coast Wine Trail, vineyards are perched above rocky headlands and often extend almost right down to the water's edge. From tourist hot-spots and instagrammable moments to small cellar doors a little off the beaten track, you'll find a diverse range of wine experiences in this almost-200km long wine growing area stretching from north to south.

Cruise the ocean's edge on the Great Eastern Drive and experience a true food and wine lover's adventure – on island time.

Some things to SEE & DO:

- From Orford, take a cruise to Maria Island to observe wombats and wallabies as they graze the Darlington settlement. Don't miss the Painted Cliffs and Fossil Cliffs.
- Visit the beautiful seaside towns of Swansea, Bicheno, Scamander and St Helens – all rich in history with their beaches, cafes, churches and cottages.
- Meet some of the local wildlife at the nightly penguin parade in Bicheno.
- Celebrate the coast's famed wine and produce by visiting one of several seasonal festivals.
- Enjoy the many walks and spectacular views on offer from the Cape Tourville lighthouse to the spectacular white sands of Binalong Bay and the Bay of Fires.
- Venture into the Freycinet National Park by boat, sea kayak or on foot to make the unique journey to Wineglass Bay, one of the world's finest beaches.

TASSIE PUTS ON AN IMPRESSIVE Spread ...

(And everything tastes better with a glass of great wine in hand).

There are more than a few great pairings on the (groaning) Tasmanian table. Because Tassie wine and food go together like ... well, wine and food!

Some things to SEE & DO:

- Cataract Gorge is a rare natural phenomenon within a two-minute drive of central Launceston. With its rolling lawns, gardens, rotunda, swimming pool, footbridge and a chairlift across the river, not to mention the peacocks and wallabies – this may be Australia's most alluring urban reserve.
- Dine in style at one of Launceston's (many) excellent restaurants and wine bars.
- Experience lutruwita / Tasmania's rich mining history at the Beaconsfield Mine and Heritage Centre.
- Visit Evandale, one of the best preserved late Georgian/early Victorian historic townships in Australia or one of the nearby historic farming properties.
- Take to the water and cruise the hidden reaches of the Tamar River and the Tamar wetlands – a haven for local birdlife.
- Taste the region's freshest produce and wines every Saturday at Launceston's Harvest Market in Cimitiere Street.

Look for this sign

our grapes are PRECIOUS!!

Our grapes and vines need to be very carefully nurtured in order to produce the outstanding wines you'll be enjoying as you travel around. Please do not enter any vineyards, as you may unknowingly be carrying unwanted pests or diseases that could cause great damage.

GREY SANDS

Bob & Rita Richter

Bob's family were teetotallers and he 'learned' to drink spirits and beer at university. There he met Rita, whose family were Italian and regularly shared wine with meals. Bob fell in love with all things wine and just had to set up a cool climate vineyard in Tasmania. That was in 1987 and today Grey Sands continues to produce their famous range of wines – pre-cellaried and ready to enjoy.

Some things to SEE & DO:

- Walk to spectacular Dove Lake and take in the stunning wilderness views in the Cradle Mountain National Park.
- Jump on a tour and sample the North West's wine paired with some of the region's best paddock-to-plate produce, meeting makers and growers along the way.
- Follow the Tasting Trail – a flavoursome journey through rolling green fields from Table Cape to seaside berry farms, highland truffles and tree-to-bottle cideries. Don't miss the Ashgrove Dairy Door for some of the region's most well-known cheese.
- Strap on your hiking boots and explore the forests, mountains and ocean-side clifftops, including a selection of Tassie's 60 great short walks.
- Meander in seaside villages and stroll the shore in easy going seaside villages of Ulverstone, Penguin and Wynyard.
- Duck underground into one of the 400 caves to be explored in the Mole Creek Karst National Park.

TAKE me home

Tasmanian Mixed
Dozen Freight
Scheme

Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian Mixed Dozen freight scheme. This allows you to pick up (awesome) Tassie wine on your travels and then have the purchased bottles sent to your home address. Present your bottles in dozen lots at a participating vineyard from which you purchase wine. They'll let you know the cost of freight and it will be sent straight to your home address.

Post!

Our wine producers would love to give you the best possible experience, so let them know when you're coming! Be sure to contact cellar doors before you visit, as they may have limited capacity and require tastings, tours and experiences to be pre-booked.

VINO {VIN ZERO} TASMANIA

Caring for our land

BEING LOCATED SO FAR SOUTH, ON AN ISLAND EXPOSED TO THE ROARING FORTIES, PRESENTS UNIQUE CHALLENGES FOR OUR GROWERS AND MAKERS. RAIN, LACK OF RAIN, HAIL, SNOW, WIND (LOTS OF WIND), BUT ALSO PLENTIFUL SUNSHINE - IT MAKES IT HARD AND RISKY TO CRAFT THESE WINES, BUT OUR PEOPLE ARE VERY TALENTED.

Part of their skill comes through application of the VinØ (pronounced vin zero) Tasmania Program, a way to measure, monitor and improve sustainability practices.

This program ensures that Tasmania's hardworking wine producers are doing everything they can to produce very high-quality wine without negative impacts on the environment or local community.

The VinØ Tasmania program provides a framework on the world's best possible practices. Tasmanian wine producers use this framework to monitor, measure, report, benchmark and constantly improve their sustainability practices.

VinØ Tasmania program members understand the connection with the land and people and recognise that we are custodians with a responsibility to future generations.
