Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian mixed dozen freight scheme. This allows you to pick up (awesome) Tassie wine on your travels & then have the purchased bottles sent to your home address. Present your bottles in dozen lots at a participating vineyard from which you purchase wine. They'll let you know the cost of freight & it will be sent straight to your home address.

Defiance. Rewarded.

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH, THE TOUGH MAKE #AWESOMEWINE. GO ON, HAVE A SQUIZZ ...

Wine Tasmania acknowledges the Aboriginal people as the traditional owners of Lutruwita/Tasmania, our island home. Our vines have their feet in the ancient soils of Lutruwita & benefit from the water that generously falls on this island. Our grapes breathe & thrive in the island's crisp fresh air & our vineyards are planted along our precious waterways, which moderate vineyard temperature & help to protect them from frosts. We therefore thank & pay our respects to the Tasmanian Aboriginal communities, elders past & present & recognise their deep & spiritual connection to this amazing place, Lutruwita.

CONGRATULATIONS!

ON EXPLORING AUSTRALIA'S

Cooler Wine Region*

UNBELIEVABLY, WE ALMOST DIDN'T HAVE A WINE SECTOR AT ALL! FOR MANY YEARS THE ISLAND'S WINE PRODUCERS WERE TOLD THAT GROWING GRAPES HERE COULDN'T BE DONE - TASSIE WAS TOO COLD, TOO REMOTE, TOO UNPREDICTABLE. IN THE SPIRIT OF NEVER TAKING NO FOR AN ANSWER, THE ISLAND'S WINE FOLK HAVE BATTLED, PERSEVERED, EXPERIMENTED, INNOVATED & PERSEVERED SOME MORE.

*(OK, we may be a little biased, but we are sure that you will thoroughly enjoy the delicious wine from our little island with latitude).

SO ... WHY ARE TASSIE'S WINES SO awesome?

- Our people (Tasmanians) are the best kind of people, particularly the ones that grow & make things
- Sparkling wine (yum)
- Pinot Noir (the "heartbreak" grape)
- Riesling, Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Shiraz (or Syrah, for the refined) & all sorts of other wonderful, delicious grape varieties call Tasmania home

A little note ...

Tasmanian wine is also perfectly crafted to complement our island's produce, so find a world class view (there are plenty) & feast like a local!

P.S. don't forget to share your Tassie wine adventures! #tassiewine

Check out Wine Tasmania's website for further information on the island's wine scene, contact details for wine producers & more.

VISITING Tassie ...

Lutruwita / Tasmania (or Tassie, as the locals know it) is one of the most spectacular places in the world. Lush green corners of paradise, picture-perfect beaches, snow capped mountains, breathtaking forests, waterfalls & lakes – you'll find just about every kind of scenery across our landscape. Not to mention cute, cuddly & curious wildlife.

You'll quickly find that Tasmania's vineyards are generally not found on flat land but follow the curve of a valley. Rocky outcrops & windy hilltops challenge the hardest of vine roots & the most committed of grape growers. This makes for diverse & distinctive wines – ancient soils vary wildly from one side of the creek to the other & no two vineyards or vintages are the same. You'll be able to taste the flavours of the season in each glass.

From converted heritage stables to ultra-modern cellar doors, chat & kick the dirt with our wine producers to find out why they have chosen to grow grapes & make wine in these extreme conditions on the edge of the world.

Although Tasmania is classified as one wine region, vineyards stretch right across the island. In this guide the seven distinct growing areas are divided into four wine touring trails. All are within easy reach of major centres & are located along the journey to some of Tasmania's iconic attractions & experiences.

OTHER THINGS TO see & do...

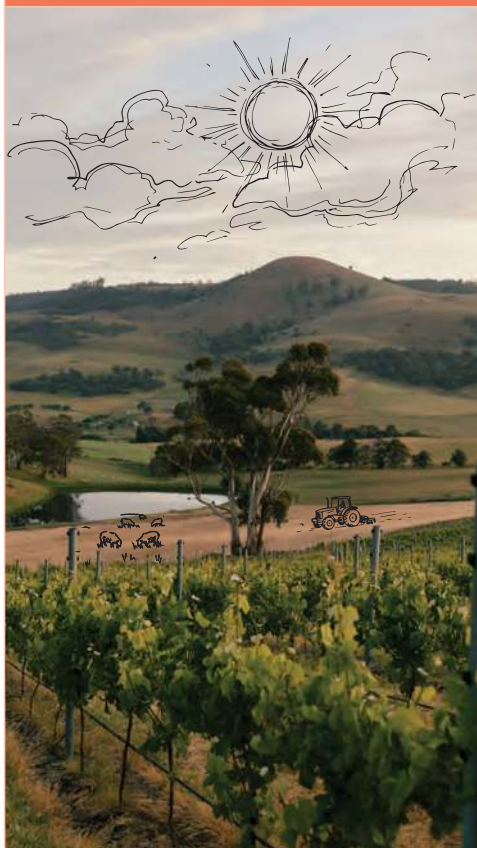

You will find information in this guide on other things that you might like to see & do as you're travelling around. You'll also find loads of information to help you plan your visit at discovertasmania.com.au

You may also like to explore complementary food & beverage trails during your visit.

SOUTHERN Wine TRAIL

IN ANY DIRECTION FROM HOBART,
ROADS WIND THROUGH RIVER VALLEYS,
PAST APPLE ORCHARDS, FARM GATES,
FISHING VILLAGES, HISTORIC TOWNS & OF COURSE, VINEYARDS.

From the Huon Valley in the south to the Derwent Valley, grapes are grown along riverbanks, rolling hills, seaside inlets & sheltered slopes. To the north-east, the Coal River Valley surrounds the historic township of Richmond, while beyond the Tasman Peninsula, the Southern Ocean crashes against some of Australia's highest sea cliffs.

Southern Tasmania is a place of remarkable variety. Few places offer so much within easy reach. One moment you're taking in sweeping views from Kunanyi/ Mount Wellington, the next you're wandering vineyard rows, exploring historic townships, sampling local produce or dipping your toes into southern waters. Distances are short, but the experiences are wonderfully diverse.

At the heart of the region sits Hobart – a city rich in history, character & more than a few hidden gems. Wander its sandstone streets & laneways & you'll uncover cosy wine bars, historic pubs, bustling markets, contemporary galleries & stories that stretch back more than two centuries. When hunger strikes, simply follow your nose. From waterfront seafood & neighbourhood bistros to late-night dumplings & long lunches, Hobart's food scene is as varied as the landscape that surrounds it.

Food & wine are woven into everyday life here. Along the Southern Wine Trail you'll find roadside stalls brimming with seasonal produce, oyster shacks overlooking the water, artisan cheesemakers, berry farms, distilleries & acclaimed restaurants championing local ingredients. It's a place where growers, makers & producers are never far away (& where every stop tells a different story).

P.S. don't forget to share your Tassie wine adventures! #tassiewine

SOUTHERN Wine TRAIL

Beyond the vineyards, southern Tasmania reveals a landscape of wild beauty. Ancient forests, alpine peaks, glacial tarns, winding rivers & rugged coastlines stretch to the edge of the Southern Ocean, creating a region that feels both accessible & untamed.

TASMANIA

THE {official} WINE TASMANIA ROAD TRIP PLAYLIST → LISTEN @ SPOTIFY

The soundtrack to a classic Tassie wine road trip. Curated by our growers, makers & producers, this playlist brings together personal favourites, nostalgic classics & songs tied to memorable moments. Hit the road, crank it up & discover Tassie one cellar door at a time.

Tasmania's South

- Board the MONA Roma ferry & cruise up the River Derwent to MONA – Tasmania's world-famous Museum of Old & New Art. Feeling a bit extra? Upgrade to the Posh Pit for the VIP experience (you know you want to).
- Every Saturday, Salamanca Market takes over Hobart's historic waterfront with local makers, growers, artists, musicians & plenty of distractions (& yes, delicious ones). Allow more time than you think you'll need.
- Take the winding road to the summit of Kunanyi/Mount Wellington. On a clear day, you'll see vineyards, valleys, islands & the Southern Ocean stretching to the horizon. Pack a jacket – the mountain likes to keep you guessing.
- Step into Tasmania's past at Port Arthur Historic Site, then continue exploring Turrakana/ Tasman Peninsula, where towering sea cliffs, wild coastlines & dramatic walks are worth the journey alone.
- Wander beneath centuries-old trees, across manicured lawns & through seasonal displays at the Royal Tasmanian Botanical Gardens – yes, Hobart is mildly famous for pineapples. You'll understand when you get there.
- Catch the ferry to Bruny Island & spend the day chasing oysters, cheese, whisky, beaches & spectacular views.
- Explore the picture-perfect historic village of Richmond, where sandstone cottages, boutique shops & Australia's oldest bridge make it easy to lose a few hours.
- Follow the River Derwent west through rolling countryside & cool-climate vineyards before reaching waterfalls, ancient forests & World Heritage wilderness. Worth the detour.

TASSIE PUTS ON AN IMPRESSIVE SPREAD...

{& EVERYTHING TASTES better WITH A GLASS OF great wine IN HAND}

There are more than a few great pairings on the (groaning) Tasmanian table. Because Tassie wine & food go together like ... well, wine & food!

EAST COAST Wine TRAIL

SLOW DOWN. TAKE THE SCENIC ROUTE. THE EAST COAST REWARDS THOSE WHO LINGER - WITH WHITE SAND BEACHES, CRYSTAL-CLEAR WATER, SLURPABLE OYSTERS, ABUNDANT WILDLIFE & VINEYARDS WITH A VIEW.

The journey between Hobart & Launceston is one of Tasmania's most rewarding road trips. Leave the highway behind & you'll discover a coastline dotted with fishing villages, secluded beaches, vineyard-covered hillsides & some of the clearest water in the country. It's the kind of place where a quick stop has a habit of turning into an afternoon.

Tasmania's East Coast is rich in stories, natural beauty & unforgettable wildlife encounters. Freycinet National Park draws visitors from around the world with its pink granite peaks, white-sand beaches & turquoise bays, while nearby coastal communities offer a slower pace & a warm welcome. Keep an eye out for wombats, echidnas, dolphins, seals & native birdlife along the way.

Fresh seafood is practically a local pastime. Feast on freshly shucked oysters harvested from pristine waters, tuck into a crayfish roll by the coast & sample the day's catch overlooking the ocean. From humble seafood shacks to acclaimed waterfront restaurants, the region's connection to the sea is impossible to miss.

Along the East Coast Wine Trail, vineyards perch above sheltered bays & rolling farmland, producing cool-climate wines shaped by long sunshine hours & maritime influence. With cellar doors overlooking the ocean & plenty of opportunities to meet the people behind the wines, it's a trail best explored at a leisurely pace. The view from the cellar door isn't bad, either.

One more thing ...

Our wine producers would love to give you the best possible experience, so let them know when you're coming! Be sure to contact cellar doors before you visit, as they may have limited capacity & require tastings, tours & experiences to be pre-booked.

EAST COAST Wine TRAIL

Beyond the vines, adventure awaits. Cruise the coastline, explore Freycinet by foot, kayak or boat, wander endless stretches of white sand or simply settle in & watch the waves roll by. Allow extra time - you'll need it.

SOME THINGS TO See & Do ...

EAST COAST
TASMANIA

NOTE: OUR GRAPES ARE PRECIOUS.

Our grapes & vines need to be very carefully nurtured in order to produce the outstanding wines you'll be enjoying as you travel around. Please do not enter any vineyards, as you may unknowingly be carrying unwanted pests or diseases that could cause great damage.

The East Coast

- From Triabunna, catch the ferry to Maria Island & spend the day exploring a car-free island paradise. Home to dramatic cliffs, pristine beaches & an alarming number of wombats (not that we're complaining).
- Discover Bicheno, recently crowned Australia's Best Town by Australian Traveller (fancy). Stay for the seafood, coastal scenery & nightly fairy penguin parade. Tiny. Wobbly. Impossible not to love.
- Follow the Great Eastern Drive & stop often. Farm gates, roadside stalls, cellar doors & spectacular coastal views are all part of the experience – one stop tends to become three.
- Venture into Freycinet National Park by foot, kayak or boat & experience the region's iconic pink granite peaks, white-sand beaches & turquoise bays. Trust us, the hype is justified.
- Pull on a pair of waders with Freycinet Marine Farm & shuck oysters straight from the water. The oysters don't get much fresher than this.
- Explore the Bay of Fires, where orange-lichen-covered granite boulders meet impossibly white sand & water so clear you'll briefly consider extending your stay.
- Visit East Coast Natureworld & meet Tasmanian devils, wombats & kangaroos up close. Warning: cuteness levels may exceed expectations.
- The East Coast is made for animal lovers. Keep your eyes peeled offshore for dolphins & seals (or simply find a quiet stretch of beach & watch the world slow down for a while).

ELEMENTS OF

A photograph of the Devil's Corner Tasmania landscape. In the foreground, a tall, narrow, vertical tower made of wooden slats stands on a grassy hill. To the right, a dark, modern building with a gabled roof is visible. In the background, a wide view of the ocean and distant mountains is seen under a dramatic, cloudy sky. A sign in the foreground reads 'Devil's Corner TASMANIA'.

TRUE CHARACTER

The logo for Devil's Corner Tasmania, featuring a stylized ship icon above the words 'Devil's Corner' in a script font, with 'TASMANIA' in a smaller, sans-serif font below it.

Wildly scenic and boldly flavourful, Devil's Corner is where Tasmania's east coast spirit meets adventurous wine. Climb the tower, sip the unexpected, feast on the local – and let the view (and the wine) take your breath away.

QUANTITY

plenty of water, use spittoons, take a guided wine tour with one of the many specialists (check out their ads in this brochure!). Or, if you plan to drive, choose a designated driver.

TAMAR VALLEY Wine TRAIL

NORTHERN Lutruwita / TASMANIA IS HOME TO AUSTRALIA'S OLDEST WINE-GROWING REGION, A THRIVING FOOD SCENE, ROLLING VINEYARDS, RICH FARMLAND & MORE THAN A FEW REASONS TO STAY A LITTLE LONGER.

Northern Tasmania rewards those who slow down. Follow the Tamar Valley Wine Trail as it winds alongside Kanamaluka / River Tamar & you'll discover vineyard-covered hillsides, fertile farmland, charming townships & producers who are passionate about sharing what they do best.

Start in Launceston, where a morning coffee can easily become lunch plans, dinner reservations & a few bottles for the trip home. Heritage streets, delectable dining & a thriving wine scene make it the perfect base for exploring the north.

From the dramatic cliffs of Cataract Gorge to the wide waters of Bass Strait, the Tamar Valley offers one of Australia's most picturesque wine routes.

This is a region where menus change with the seasons, farm gates operate on honesty boxes & long lunches have a habit of becoming longer. Along the way you'll find artisan producers, providores, cellar doors & some of the state's most celebrated food & wine experiences.

Beyond cellar doors, the region rewards curious travellers. Explore Cataract Gorge, browse galleries & boutiques, linger over a leisurely lunch, then finish the day with a glass of local Pinot Noir as the sun sets over the valley.

If you're looking to venture further afield, Northern Tasmania delivers in every direction. Wander the dramatic coastline of the far north-east, explore the mountain bike trails of Derby, relax in a floating sauna or simply follow the road & see where it leads. The best finds are often the ones you weren't looking for.

P.S. don't forget to share your Tassie wine adventures! #tassiewine

SOME THINGS TO See & Do ...

TAKE ME HOME ...

TASMANIAN Mixed Dozen FREIGHT SCHEME

x12 Filter your wine trail by participating cellar doors here →

Wine producers with this icon displayed are participants in the Tasmanian mixed dozen freight scheme. This allows you to pick up (awesome) Tassie wine on your travels & then have the purchased bottles sent to your home address. Present your bottles in dozen lots at a participating vineyard from which you purchase wine. They'll let you know the cost of freight & it will be sent straight to your home address.

The Tamar Valley + Surrounds

- Explore Cataract Gorge, where dramatic cliffs, native bushland & the world's longest single-span chairlift sit just minutes from Launceston's city centre (it has a habit of exceeding expectations).
- Visit Bridestowe Lavender Estate, where rolling rows of lavender create one of Tasmania's most iconic landscapes. Purple suits the region.
- Wander the beautifully preserved streets of Evandale, where heritage buildings, village greens & old-world charm abound. Home to Australia's National Penny Farthing Championships, it's a town that proudly marches to the beat of its own drum.
- Pull up a seat at one of Launceston's many acclaimed restaurants. This UNESCO City of Gastronomy has quietly built one of Australia's most exciting regional food scenes.
- Take to the water & cruise the winding reaches of Kanamaluka/River Tamar, where vineyards, farmland & historic settlements reveal themselves around every bend. The slow way is often the best way.
- Spend a Saturday morning at Launceston Harvest Market, where the region's growers, makers & producers gather each week (if you want to understand northern Tasmania, start here).
- Visit Seahorse World & Platypus House & come face-to-face with some of Australia's most unique wildlife. The platypus remains one of nature's more ambitious projects.
- Head to Low Head at dusk & watch little penguins emerge from the sea & make their way ashore. Small in stature, big on charm.

For more local touring information head to northerntasmania.com.au.

Whether you're settling in for lunch overlooking the vines, picking up produce from a roadside stall or discovering your next favourite Pinot Noir, it pays to leave a little room in the itinerary (& the boot).

QUALITY not QUANTITY

Don't be that person. In Tasmania, it is all about quality, not quantity. Wine Tasmania encourages responsible consumption of alcohol & recommends the following: don't drink on an empty stomach, drink plenty of water, use spittoons, take a guided wine tour with one of the many specialists (check out their ads in this brochure!). Or, if you plan to drive, choose a designated driver.

NORTH WEST Wine TRAIL

THEY STAND BY A RECIPE IN THE NORTH WEST. LUSH. GENEROUS.
WELCOMING. UNTAMED. A GOOD
DOSE OF FINE WINE, FRESH PRODUCE & COUNTRY HOSPITALITY.

The North West Wine Trail follows Tasmania's rugged coastline, where rich farmland meets wild ocean & winding roads lead to some of the state's most rewarding food & wine experiences.

Few places are shaped more by the elements. The Roaring Forties sweep in from the ocean, rivers tumble from the highlands & rich, fertile soils produce some of Tasmania's most celebrated ingredients. Truffles, berries, artisan cheeses, premium beef, cool-climate wines & seafood hauled from nearby waters all have their roots here – it's a region that celebrates provenance without making a fuss about it.

Along the trail you'll find cellar doors tucked among rolling farmland, roadside stalls brimming with seasonal produce & producers whose names are often on the gate, the label (& the tractor). Meet the people behind the wines, sample produce at its source & discover why some of Tasmania's best food stories begin in the North West.

After you've done all that, step outside. Wander through ancient rainforests, stand atop dramatic sea cliffs, explore windswept beaches & breathe some of the cleanest air on Earth among the Takayna/Tarkine forests. The scale of the landscape has a way of making everything else feel rather small.

Take the scenic route. Stop when something catches your eye. Stay longer than planned. The North West tends to reward that kind of behaviour.

P.S. don't forget to share your Tassie wine adventures! #tassiewine

NORTH WEST Wine TRAIL

Chase waterfalls, wind through rainforests, stop for just-picked produce, dip into coastal towns or head for the hills. It's rugged, generous & full of surprises - best explored without too much of a plan.

SOME THINGS TO See & Do ...

NORTH WEST
TASMANIA

NOTE: OUR GRAPES ARE PRECIOUS.

Our grapes & vines need to be very carefully nurtured in order to produce the outstanding wines you'll be enjoying as you travel around. Please do not enter any vineyards, as you may unknowingly be carrying unwanted pests or diseases that could cause great damage.

The Cradle Coast

- Explore Cradle Mountain–Lake St Clair National Park, home to ancient rainforests, alpine lakes & some of Tasmania's most spectacular scenery. Keep an eye out for wombats – they're known to steal a little of the spotlight.
- Follow the Tasting Trail & discover why the North West has earned a reputation for exceptional produce. Cheese, berries, seafood, cider & chocolate are all part of the journey.
- Explore the remarkable Mole Creek Caves, where underground chambers, glow worms & limestone formations reveal a secret world metres beneath your feet.
- Head west to Takayna/Tarkine & experience one of the largest temperate rainforests on Earth. Ancient forests, wild rivers & some of the cleanest air you'll ever breathe.
- Climb The Nut at Stanley for sweeping coastal views, then wander the historic fishing village below (the fish & chips aren't bad either).
- Meander through seaside towns including Burnie, Devonport, Penguin, Wynyard & Ulverstone, where coastal walks, local cafés & (very) friendly locals make it easy to linger.
- Visit Ashgrove Cheese & sample some of Tasmania's best-known dairy products straight from the source (a North West rite of passage).

Part ...

Our wine producers would love to give you the best possible experience, so let them know when you're coming! Be sure to contact cellar doors before you visit, as they may have limited capacity & require tastings, tours & experiences to be pre-booked.

VINØ {VIN ZERO} TASMANIA

Caring for our land

BEING LOCATED SO FAR SOUTH, ON AN ISLAND EXPOSED TO THE ROARING FORTIES, PRESENTS UNIQUE CHALLENGES FOR OUR GROWERS & MAKERS. RAIN, LACK OF RAIN, HAIL, SNOW, WIND (LOTS OF WIND), BUT ALSO PLENTIFUL SUNSHINE - IT MAKES IT HARD & RISKY TO CRAFT THESE WINES, BUT OUR PEOPLE ARE VERY TALENTED.

Part of their skill comes through application of the VinØ (pronounced vin zero) Tasmania Program, a way to measure, monitor & improve sustainability practices.

This program ensures that Tasmania's hardworking wine producers are doing everything they can to produce very high-quality wine without negative impacts on the environment or local community.

The VinØ Tasmania program provides a framework on the world's best possible practices. Tasmanian wine producers use this framework to monitor, measure, report, benchmark & constantly improve their sustainability practices.

VinØ Tasmania program members understand the connection with the land & people & recognise that we are custodians with a responsibility to future generations. View further details at www.vinzero.com.au.
